A. READING COMPREHENSION

TEXT: Unit 13, FASHION VICTIMS, Without Borders 3

...For a few, fashion is a way to express personality, but for many others wearing luxury fashion items is a way of showing that they belong to a specific group, or to suggest that they are wealthy and successful.

Some people follow fashion because of peer pressure and the need for a sense of belonging. When this is taken to extremes, people become 'fashion victims' instead of fashionable.

This happened to my friend, Alicia...When the brand of jeans known as 'Macho-Feminine' became trendy, Alicia's classmates teased her, because they knew she could never afford a pair.

Finally, Alicia became so unhappy she tried to steal a pair from a shop. An assistant saw her wearing a new pair under her old jeans and threatened to call the police,...
